

STATE OF UTAH)
) SS.
County of Beaver)

Arnold Low, being first duly sworn, deposes and says:

That he is now and has been for more than fifty years last past a resident of the City of Beaver, County of Beaver, State of Utah, and that during all of the said times he has been acquainted with that section of Beaver County immediately adjoining Beaver City, and formerly consisting of the Greenwood and the Jackson homestead premises and more particularly with the premises embraced within the SW $\frac{1}{4}$ NE $\frac{1}{4}$ of Section 28, Township 29 South, Range 7 West, S.L.M., that his uncle formerly owned the premises, and that this affiant does now and has for the past twenty-eight years owned acreage immediately east of the 15.2 acres referred to in award No. 36 of the decree commonly known as the Beaver River General Adjudication Decree.

That he is now and has been during the periods above set forth acquainted with the location where William R. Yardley now diverts the water referred to under said award No. 36, for the irrigation of the said 15.2 acres of land, and which point of said diversion is presently at the location of a Parshell flume referred to by Mr. Lee Strong, Beaver River Water Commissioner;

That the water so diverted by said William R. Yardley for the irrigation of said 15.2 acres referred to in said award No. 36 has, to the personal knowledge of this affiant, been taken from the point of diversion set forth in the preceeding paragraph of this affidavit, and which point of diversion has been commonly known as the Greenwood Sough.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 24 day of August, 1963.
